GENERAL RULES

Each author declares to be the owner of all the rights of the work; ensures that the contents of the same are in its availability and do not violate the laws or regulations in force or the rights of third parties and in particular the copyright. He also assures and declares that the work does not contain any defamatory content. In any case, the author releases the organization from all responsibilities, costs, charges and expenses of any kind that may be incurred due to the content of the work and its public screening. Any type of participation of the film in festivals prior to the 2021 edition of the ArTelesia Social Film Festival, as well as the possibility of viewing it online and on platforms intended for the public, will prevent its selection.

Participants in the competition, by registering, authorize the Organizing Association of the Competition to process personal data and to use their name and address for all uses related to the event in accordance with current legislation. Registration for the competition implies acceptance of the Regulations, the authorization for public viewing for which the author will not receive fees or rights of any kind and for any reason. The winners and the prize-winners must personally collect the awards, where allowed by the emergency anti-covid legislation. In any case, in relation to the evolution of the health emergency, detailed information will be provided on how to conduct the final award ceremony.

Free hospitality is provided for those residing over 100 km from Benevento. Sending the participation form, completed and signed, implies acceptance of these Regulations.

The organizing committee reserves the right to make changes to this announcement for technical-organizational needs.
